

PINE HILL POLICE DEPARTMENT MEDIA RELEASE

INCIDENT:	Domestic Violence / Resisting Arrest / Possession of CDS / Criminal Mischief	DATE/TIME:	05/26/2012 2210
LOCATION:	220 West Branch Avenue, Pine Hill	CASE #:	2012005515

On May 26th, 2012 at approximately 2210 hours, the Pine Hill Police Department was dispatched to an apartment in the Mansions Apartment Complex located at 220 W. Branch Avenue for a domestic violence incident. During the course of the investigation a suspect was identified as Andre T. Pritchett. Pritchett had left the scene prior to Officer's arrival. During the search of the area for Pritchett, he was located in the area of the 100 building of the Mansions.

Pritchett ignored the Officer's commands and he attempted to walk away from the Officer. The Officer attempted to take Pritchett into custody and a struggle ensued. With the assistance of additional Officers, Pritchett was taken into custody. Pritchett was also found to be in possession of a small glass pipe commonly used as CDS paraphernalia and a quantity of prescription medication identified as Acetaminophen with Oxycodone Hydrochloride. Pritchett was charged with Simple Assault, Resisting Arrest, Possession of CDS, and Possession of Drug Paraphernalia. Bail was set for Pritchett at $20,000 and he was remanded to the Camden County Correctional Facility in default of bail.

While being transported to Camden County Correction Facility in a marked Pine Hill Police vehicle, Pritchett began kicking the rear driver's side door causing the top half of the door to bend outward away from the frame of the vehicle. Charges for the Criminal Mischief to the patrol vehicle are pending.
