MEDIA RELEASE

INCIDENT:	Possession of a stolen sawed-off shotgun, Aggravated Assault, Possession of CDS Paraphernalia	DATE/TIME:	05/11/2014 5:31AM
LOCATION:	220 W. Branch Avenue	CASE #:	2014004657

On May 11th, 2014 at approximately 0531 hours Officers responded to 220 W. Branch Avenue in the area of the 1700 building for the report of an injured female and asking for the Police. Arriving Officers located the victim lying on the ground with a severe facial and eye injury. The victim stated that she had been assaulted by a male and female inside an apartment. The victim relayed to officers the apartment number, suspect information and that there may be a "long gun" inside the apartment. Officers dispatched EMS for the victim and responded to the apartment where the assault was reported to have occurred.

Officers entered the open apartment and located both suspects hiding in a bedroom. The suspects, identified as Christina Gleadall and Erik Miller were taken into custody without incident. Continued investigation at the scene led to a search of the apartment. During the search, Officers located brass knuckles, a scale and packaging materials consistent with the packaging and distribution of CDS and Schedule II narcotic pills. Officers also located a sawed off shotgun wrapped in black electrical tape and hidden within clothing inside of a closet. The shotgun was confirmed to be stolen out of Mantua Twp, NJ. Both suspects were charged accordingly for the assault of the female victim and Erik Miller was charged with weapons and CDS offenses. Both were remanded to the Camden County Correctional Facility in default of bail.
